

How to Book a Performance

To book a performance of a New Moon Theater production, email info@nmtheater.org or call 410-719-8603.

Performances last 45 minutes and are designed for audiences of up to 250 people. Discounted back-to-back performances are available for larger groups. Travel fees are applied to performances outside of Baltimore City and County.

Our artists are available for workshops, after school programs or arts integrated residencies. We are on the MSAC's roster of Artists-in-Residence and certified through the Teaching Artists Institute in drama and opera. See our website for details.

About New Moon Theater

New Moon Theater is a touring company of full-time, professionally trained theater artists who are dedicated to bringing exciting, imaginative live performances to children and family audiences.

Founded in 2006 by Tom Zielinski, Kristin Barnes and Executive Director Julie Kurzava, our interactive children's theater pieces have been enjoyed by over 75,000 people.

"New Moon Theater is a Port Discovery FAVORITE! They offer theatrical presentations that are highly interactive, sensitive to culture and include important life lessons using humor and whimsy."

- Nora Moynihan, Education Director
Port Discovery Children's Museum

New Moon Theater has performed in schools, libraries and arts centers throughout Maryland, Delaware and Virginia, as well as Port Discovery, the Baltimore Museum of Art, the Peabody Institute, the Chesapeake Arts Center, the Enoch Pratt Free Library, Artscape, the Deaf-Blind Camp of Maryland, the Carroll County Arts Center and the Maryland Renaissance Festival.

New Moon Theater is a 501(c)3 non-profit corporation funded by an operating grant from the Maryland State Arts Council, an agency dedicated to cultivating a vibrant cultural community where the arts thrive.
